IN OLD AMERIKEE

ONE STEP SONG

By

JULES JORDAN

Compliments of Orders may be sent to Mr. Jordan

Address Esther Exchange
Providence, R. I.

Price 50 cents

PUBLISHED BY JULES JORDAN
PROVIDENCE, R.I.

IN OLD AMERIKEE

ONE STEP SONG

Words and Music by JULES JORDAN

Allegro With fire
I'm
They
f Con fuoco glad I live just where I do In old A - mer - i - kee Though say they have an at - mos - phere Of which we're lack - ing quite They've mp
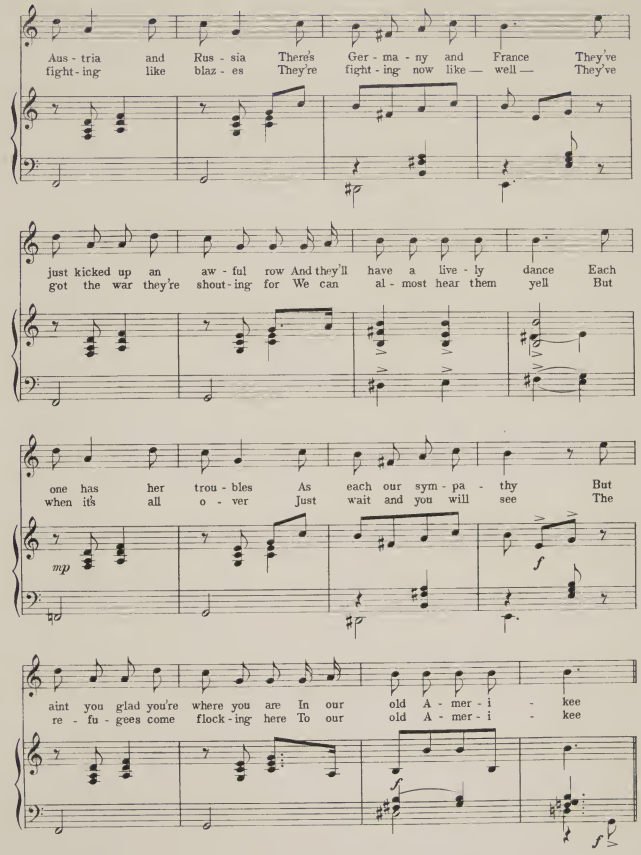
f some per - haps find fault with her Yet she's good e - nough for me There's queens and kings and oth - er things And they rule but that's all right They're

Copyright, 1914, by Jules Jordan



Aus - tria and Rus - sia There's Ger - ma - ny and France They've fight - ing like blaz - es They're fight - ing now like — well — They've just kicked up an aw - ful row And they'll have a live - ly dance Each got the war they're shout - ing for We can al - most hear them yell But one has her trou - bles As each our sym - pa - thy But when it's all o - ver Just wait and you will see The mp
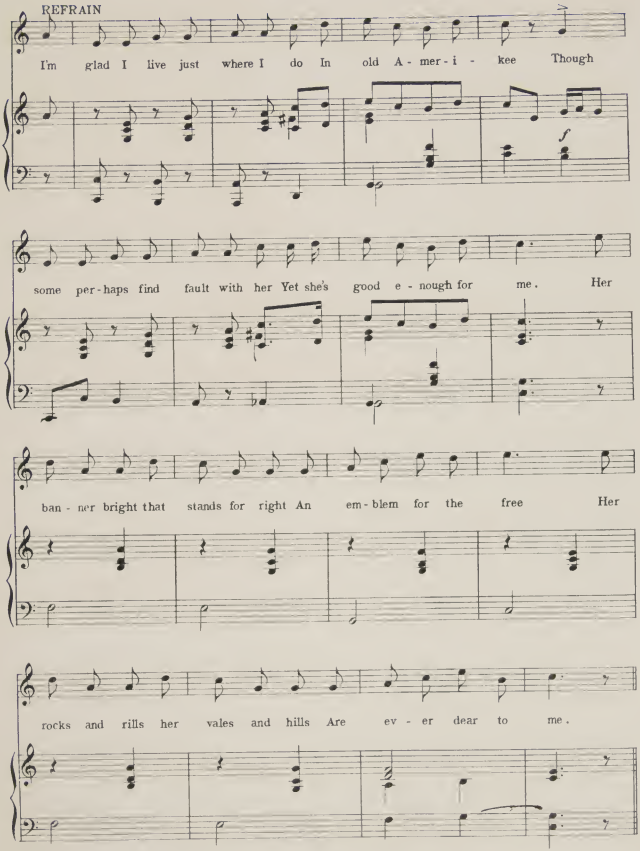
f aint you glad you're where you are In our old A - mer - i - kee re - fu - gees come flock - ing here To our old A - mer - i - kee



REFRAIN
I'm glad I live just where I do In old A - mer - i - kee Though some per - haps find fault with her Yet she's good e - nough for me. Her ban - ner bright that stands for right An em - blem for the free Her rocks and rills her vales and hills Are ev - er dear to me.

f Gem of cre - a - tion Home of a na - tion cantando
f
Where ev - 'ry stat - ion has e - qual rights and free
fr
Raise then the ban - ner Brav - 'ry has won her Fight for its hon - or and old A - mer - i - kee
f

C.F.W. Schlueper Music Press, Boston, Mass.

A NEW GRAND OPERA IN THREE ACTS

entitled

NISIDA

The Libretto on an Italian story by ALEXANDRE DUMAS of the same title.

The music by JULES JORDAN and recently completed.

Look for the announcement of a first production in the near future with a cast of principals from the METROPOLITAN OPERA, New York